Philathea Class Meeting.

Mrs. W. H. Smith was hostess to the Philathea class Friday afternoon Jan. 19th. The meeting was called to order by the president, Miss Alice Newton, and the class hymn: "Blest be the tie that binds," was sung, followed by prayer by Rev. Long. After the roll call and business of the meeting, the lesson was conducted by Rev. Long, and proved a very interesting lesson indeed, the subject being, "The Ancient World and Abraham and the chosen people," taken from the 10th and 12th chapters of Genesis and 4th and 5th chapters of the Bible Study by Periods.

Much interest was manifested by the good attendance, there being twenty members and three visitors present. One new member, Mrs. R. J. Riley was added to the roll.

After the lesson refreshments consisting of sandwiches cake and chocolate was served by the hostess, assisted by Mesdames Posey and Miller during which the sweet strains of music from the Victrola was enjoyed by all. This was the first meeting of the class for this year and we trust that it will continue to grow in interest and knowledge of the word of God.

"Study to thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed rightly dividing the word of truth." Mrs. J. G. NEWTON.

Minstrel Show Pleased.

The Busby's World's Greatest Minstrel Show Wednesday evening has shown the distinction of being the only one to exhibit here for some time without a lot of fault finding critics picking its attractions to pieces afterwards.

A negro minstrel show is in a class by itself, and a good one never fails to please an audience where laughter and amusement are sought.

The negro has an ear for music; it is natural with him; and he has his way of rendering it. It is not classical, but it is better—more pleasing.

The minstrels gave a good entertainment—one well worth the price, and the audience got its satisfaction of negro melody and laughter.—Hazelton Herald. At Hondo, Monday night, Jan. 28th.

Better Beware.

The Anvil Herald is informed that some of the young men of this county have been paying their poll-taxes but failing to make assessments and render their personal property, such as horses, cattle, buggies, etc., for taxes. It is not generally known that the man who does not assess and pay his poll-tax is subject to a penalty of three days road duty in addition to the regular five days. If you are among the number who have been doing this you had better quit it now; call on the Tax Assessor and make rendition of all property; and pay the tax at the proper time. It would be embarrassing to be called on for an extra three days work on the roads by your road overseer.

Enjoys Poultry Show.

Fletcher Davis, Field Agent of the State Department of Agriculture, returned Friday night from Uvalde where he represented his department at the Uvalde Poultry Show. Mr. Davis says that while the trade and variety exhibits were not so large and attractive as last year, there were more than twice as many chickens, representing a greater number of breeds, than last year. The quality, also, seemed to have been higher. Several individual birds having won prizes at other shows. The industrial exhibits of the Manual Training and Domestic Science Departments of the Uvalde High School and also of the Catholic School attracted a great deal of favorable comment. He says the Uvalde poultry show has stimulated a great deal of interest in pure-bred poultry in Uvalde and vicinity and thinks that all other counties would profit materially by maintaining such an enterprise as that at Uvalde. While at the show Mr. Davis purchased three prize-winning Cornish Indian Game pullets to add to his already choice flock of pure-bred birds of that breed.

Married.

Mr. Frank Rihn and Miss Hilda Bendele, two young people of Biry, were happily married at San Fernando Cathedral in San Antonio, on Monday, January 22nd, 1917. Rev. Father Hector performed the ceremony. The brides-maid was Miss Pauline Rihn and the best man was Mr. Alfred Rihn.

The groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rihn and his bride the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bendele of Devine. They number their friends by their acquaintances, all of whom unite in extending congratulations and best wishes.

The young couple will make their future home with Mr. and Mrs. Bendele, near Devine, where the groom will engage in farming.

The Anvil Herald wishes the happy couple bon-voyage on the journey of life.

Six Old Ladies Are Restored to Health.

Famous Medicine Accomplishes Wonderful Results in Treating Infirmities of Old Age.

For the past year or so, several of the more elderly ladies of the Old Ladies' home on Rutledge Pike, Knoxville, Tenn., have been in a very feeble delicate state of health, bordering at times on what might be termed a general decline.

Their failure to do so was due, doubt, in a large measure, to the general infirmities of advanced age, and although they received every possible care and attention, they seemed to be beyond the reach of the treatment ordinarily administered in such cases.

At the suggestion of Mrs. Cuiton, the matron of the institution, they concluded to try Taniae and it was a happy decision indeed when they did so. The reconstructive powers of the medicine were at once in evidence. They began almost immediately to feel better, eat better and rest better. Since that time the treatment has been continued with the most astonishing and gratifying results, but let them tell their own stories in their own individual way. Their statements are profoundly interesting.

Mrs. Houser was one of the first to use the medicine, and being at a very advanced age, her trouble had been more persistent and difficult to treat, perhaps than any of the others. Mrs. Houser said:

"I have been in a very weak, nervous state for several years and have suffered principally from stomach trouble. I would go for months at a time without eating any solid food and up to a short time ago, spent most of my time in my room, as I was too weak to come down stairs. I ate some corn bread and spare ribs for dinner today and they seemed to agree with me perfectly, as I have suffered no bad after effects whatever. The horrible headaches and nervousness are gone and I am feeling so much better in every way."

Mrs. Martin, who was the next to testify, said:

"I have suffered a great deal from hard, darting pains in my head and had stomach trouble. I hardly ever have a pain now, the catarrh no longer troubles me and my appetite is much better."

Mrs. Pink, said:

"I was sick all last summer and I now feel better and stronger than in months. I no longer suffer from the headaches I had so much."

Mrs. Wallis seemed to be especially delicate and had a very weak constitution and weak stomach. Mrs. Wallis said:

"In only one week after taking your medicine I began to feel greatly improved. I feel very much stronger, enjoy my meals more and seem to rest better at night. I expect to continue taking Taniae."

In referring to the above statements Mr. G. F. Willis, who is now personally directing the introduction of Taniae throughout the south, said:

"I consider the statements of these old ladies the most remarkable that have ever come under my observation. I do not hesitate to say that I believe these endorsements to be the strongest that have ever been received by a proprietary medicine of any character."

Quoting from one of Mr. Cooper's lectures, Mr. Willis said:

"When people grow to a ripe old age, their digestive organs lack vitality, and begin to act more slowly and less effectively than in youth. The circulation becomes poor, the blood gets thin, the appetite fails and the digestion weak."

Taniae, the powerful reconstructive tonic, is the ideal strengthener and body builder for old folks, because it creates a good healthy appetite, strengthens digestion, enriches the blood and in this natural manner builds up, strengthens and invigorates feeble, run-down nervous people, and is an unfailing source of comfort to the aged and infirm."

Taniae is sold in Hondo by W. H. Windrow.

An Excellent Performance.

Busby's Minstrels played to a crowded tent last night. They were by far the best minstrels that ever visited the city under canvas. They have an excellent performance, singing and dancing, while the old time minstrel performance and songs delighted the audience. They carry a fine band and are a tuneful, musical, talented crowd.—Yates Center Advocate. At Hondo Monday, Jan. 29th.

We would have fewer regrets if people didn't find them out.

WHY YOU ARE NERVOUS

The nervous system is the alarm system of the human body.

In perfect health we hardly realize that we have a network of nerves, but when health is ebbing, when strength is declining, the same nervous system gives the alarm in headaches, tiredness, dreamful sleep, irritability and unless corrected, leads straight to a breakdown.

To correct nervousness, Scott's Emulsion is exactly what you should take; its rich nutriment gets into the blood and rich blood feeds the tiny nerve-cells while the whole system responds to its refreshing tonic force. It is free from alcohol.

The Missing Coat-Tails

Schoolboys usually stand by one another and refuse to betray a companion who is in trouble. A well-known instance of this occurred while Doctor Vaughan was headmaster of Harrow. Returning one night from a dinner party the master caught sight of a pupil who was taking a walk when, according to the rules, he ought to have been in bed. The moment the boy saw his master he fled as if for his life. Doctor Vaughan ran also in hot pursuit, and just managed to seize his pupil's coat-tails. After a lively tussle the boy escaped, leaving one tail in the master's hands. It was a dark night, and the master had not recognized the pupil, of which he had not seen much more than the back. He made sure, however, that he would find out the culprit in the morning by means of the missing coat-tail. But when Doctor Vaughan entered the school he saw that every boy of the sixth form had only one tail to his coat! Thus the offender went unpunished.

Girls' Club Activities.

San Antonio, Tex., Jan. 15, 1917.

Dearest Club Girls:

We are all getting right down to club work for our spring course. You know we are going to hold county conventions where we have county organizations and I sincerely trust every county will get real busy to work for a club attendance from now until March and April. As soon as we can arrange dates will let every county know. We are offering a cash prize of ten dollars to the club in each county that has the best club attendance from January to the date of the county convention. Let us all try for that prize.

I would like to write a long letter about the wonderful things the clubs are doing over this state. I told you of the beautiful club reception tendered me by the dear little club girls of Corpus Christi; how they issued invitations for a reception given in the beautiful sun parlors of the Nueces Hotel. Those little girls know how to do things as well as their mothers and that is saying a great deal. I wish every county had the splendid supervisor that the girls of Corpus Christi and Nueces county enjoy in the person of Mrs. E. H. Miles. She is simply wonderful.

A most interesting letter came from Mrs. McWilliams of Lott this week telling me what the girls of that club are doing. Just think, those girls have turned over to the school board of Lott $200 for a club library. They are pledged to buy $400 worth of books. Are they not wonderful girls and is not Mrs. McWilliams splendid to work so well with them? I know they appreciate her as the girls of Nueces county appreciate Mrs. Miles.

Mrs. Lovejoy of Collin county is busy again with the coming spring to add more laurels to her county. They are going to have a flower planting campaign. Mrs. Lovejoy has done worlds for her county and the girls in it and to her and Miss Ruth Finch they owe much pleasure and help.

Miss Allie George of Denison Domestic Art and Science School is writing about our district convention to be held in Denison next month. We will get dates fixed within the next week. All girls know Miss George and Miss McLean of this fine school for their assistance in our club work. Grayson county girls remember the elegant attention that was shown our county convention when we met in Denison some time ago. Miss George says the club girls of Denison are anxious to be hostesses to the visiting girls. We have learned that the Denison girls are hard to beat in doing things.

McLennan county girls are quietly but surely going ahead with their work. They are girls who work steadily and the most remarkable thing about it all is they are nearly all young girls. They have a special hobby to work for, their beautiful Cotton Palace.

Far away Hale county has been making some good reports. I am anxious to get back up there and revisit the dear little clubs I have dotted over the broad prairies of that beautiful country. I wonder how they came out with their apple canning. We will get to that, girls, when I come up within the next month or so. I have not forgotten the awards and you shall have them. Get ready your reports upon that issue.

I wonder how Mt. Vernon club is getting along. Let us hear from you, Mt. Vernon. Venus and Pettenville also. These clubs are numbered among my best. I have enjoyed revisiting a number of my Medina county clubs and found them doing very good silent work. I do wish the girls could know how much we appreciate hearing from them. Write us often of what you are doing.

Miss Paul Hill, President of the Haringen club, asks that the girls write her how they do things in their club. Will the girls write her and give her the benefit of your club experience?

We are indebted to the Texas Seed and Floral Co. of Dallas, for generous donations of seeds, to various school gardens and clubs, and to the Imperial Sugar Co. for club donations of sugar.

We all appreciate the generosity of our friends in our work.

I could write on and on, but must stop. We will fix a date for our district convention to be held in San Antonio in April as soon as we can get dates of other affairs settled in that city. With much love to all, I am Sincerely yours, MRS. J. L. LANDRUM

Helped Lower Living Cost.

Last spring we determined to have a garden, because we had read so many enthusiastic letters in THE PEOPLE'S HOME JOURNAL and we had one of the most wonderful gardens that ever grew.

I purchased fourteen Dahlia bulbs for $1.50, and they bloomed gorgeously until killed by frost. Petunias, climbing nasturtiums, sweet peas, asters and many other blossoms kept our rooms, our table and our back yard bright and cheerful throughout the season, also I gave dozens and dozens of bouquets to friends and neighbors.

We are still eating carrots, cabbage, onions (dried), beets, cucumber pickles and relishes, dried beans, turnips and the black Spanish winter radishes that were raised in our little garden last year. We have sent for catalogs and are making plans for another little garden this year, for we have found that it pays, in so many, many ways, to raise even the tiniest little garden. I sold $4.00 worth of dahlia bulbs from my original fourteen, and have two dozen nice bulbs for my own garden this year. —From THE PEOPLE'S HOME JOURNAL for February.

The Habit of Taking Cold.

With many people taking cold is a habit, but fortunately one that is easily broken. Take a cold sponge bath every morning when you first get out of bed—not ice cold, but a temperature of about 90-F. Also sleep with your window up. Do this and you will seldom take cold. When you do take cold take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and get rid of it as quickly as possible. Obtainable everywhere.

A fool and his money are easy to get started.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only catarrh cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for full particulars. Address: J. C. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by all Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Bad Habits.

Those who break fast at eight o'clock or later, lunch at twelve and have dinner at six are almost certain to be troubled with indigestion. They do not allow time for one meal to digest before taking another. Not less than five hours should elapse between meals. If you are troubled with indigestion correct your habits and take Chamberlain's Tablets, and you may reasonably hope for a quick recovery. These tablets strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. Obtainable everywhere.

Music is the food which is more than can be truthfully said of the onion.

Dress and Education

When little girls begin to think and talk about dress it is the mother's opportunity to form their taste on correct lines. "Pretty" is a word very often on the small girl's lips. She wants to be pretty. She understands that clothes have much to do with making people "look pretty." Under the impression that they are properly discouraging vanity, many mothers now try to divert the child's thoughts from the effect that clothes have on the person. Their motives are all right, but their methods are often all wrong and sometimes result in making the child too indifferent of appearances.

The girl will be saved from vanity concerning her personal beauty if she is taught to see beauty in a wider range of natural objects. A flower is beautiful; a leaf with its fine veins is beautiful; so is a waterfall, and the arch of a horse's neck. It is well to explain to the little girl how the pretty roundness of her body and the glow in her cheeks are related to health. To preserve the pretty glow and keep the body lithe and graceful, clothes and shoes must be comfortable as well as pretty. Shoes must be of the right size and shape, so that the little growing toes may not be misshapen. The little girl should learn to think of herself from head to feet, and not only of her face.

Given such an outlook the little girl will regard her beauty of face and figure as something quite natural, not distinguishing her greatly from other healthy children, but get something to be valued and improved by proper care and proper dressing. She will be ready to accept the teaching that dress should be selected for its suitability and becomingness. She will be interested in discovering for herself nature's laws of color harmony.

Your Corner

Don't you like your little corner of the world?
Have you sweetened it with sunshine and with song?
Have you tried to make it brighter as you toil?
Have you tried to right its sorrow and its wrong?
Do you think it's just the finest spot you know,
And the noblest spot for effort that could be?
Have you made it shed around a brighter glow?
Have you tried to help the rest of us to see?
Are you happy in your station and your time,
And contented with the way that things go on?
Have you made the little corner 'round you shine,
Does it sparkle with the dewdrops of the dawn?
Do the thousands that go marching on their way
Stop to smile before the beauty that you've brought
From the chaos and the turmoil of the fray
By a little friendly purpose and sweet thought?
Don't you like the little corner he has given
For your gladness and your use and your delight?
Have you made it just a little nearer heaven,
Have you turned it from its darkness and its night?
It's your corner, and it ought to be as fine
No other corner anywhere could glow
With the beauty and the gladness and the shine
That your special little corner's learned to know.

SOME SMILES

Professional Jealousy.

First Soubrette—I think as a rule it's disappointment that drives men to drink.

Second Soubrette—I'm sure you are right, dear. I noticed tonight, after you had sung the first verse of your song, there was a mad rush for the bar.

Somewhat Sarcastic.

Smith — My wife has persuaded me to accompany her to church next Sunday.

Jones — Well, you have my best wishes.

Smith — Best wishes for what?
Jones — Pleasant dreams.

Juvenile Logic.

Lester, age five, was saying his evening prayer at his mother's knee, and she was aiding him with suggestions.

"Bless and take care of the little lambs of the flock," she said.
Now, Lester knew that he was included among the lambs, and he reasoned that his parents should not be forgotten. "Bless and take care of the little lambs of the flock," he repeated—then added: "And I guess, Lord, you had better keep an eye on the old sheep, too."

A Grim Reminder.

"Do you find football more exciting than baseball?"
"Oh, yes, indeed," replied the fair debutante. "I don't know much about the game, 'tis true, but the sight of an ambulance standing near the side lines thrills me to the core."

Losing Venture.

"Do you know anything about the milieu of this play?" asked the man with horn-rimmed spectacles.
"If you mean the chap who's backing this show," answered the amiable lowbrow, "I guess he's off somewhere wishing he could kick himself."

Both have had many years of successful experience in their particular line of work. These gentlemen come to us without any cost to anyone in Medina county, except the places where they go the community is expected to furnish them entertainment. It is well worth the time to hear these educators and to observe what they do. It will be a great stimulus to the different communities where they will speak, hence all the patrons of the various districts should avail themselves of this opportunity. Bring your neighbors and friends. Let's have dinner on the ground and stay all day. Renew acquaintances, and watch the children work and play. We need your assistance to make this week the biggest educational revival Medina county has ever had. Get together, boost your school and get everybody to attend these rallies.

Superintendent W. N. Seathoff will look after the transportation of these gentlemen while they are in Medina county.

At these different community meetings let the schools in the adjoining districts meet with the school that is scheduled above. The children will spread their lunches together and have a happy reunion.

Respectfully,

W. N. SAATHOFF,
County School Superintendent, Medina Co., Texas.

SOME SMILES

Spoiled by Overdoing.

"Your beauty is intoxicating," murmured the infatuated youth.
"That settles it," rejoined the maid in the case. "I can never be your wife."
"Because why?" he queried.
"Because you would be full most of the time," she explained.

Drawing the Line.

"Yes," she said, "I love you all right, but I couldn't think of being your wife."

"What's the answer?" queried the puzzled young man.

"Why," replied the daughter of Eve, "you are only a horse doctor."

"Is that the only objection?" he asked.

"That's enough," she answered. "I could never think of being tied to anything less than a veterinary surgeon."

Different Odor.

Fish were served each Friday for dinner at the home of five-year-old Flossie, and during a two weeks' sojourn in the country she had missed them.

"Grandma, don't you have any Fridays out here?"
"Of course we do, dear," replied the old lady. "But why do you ask?"

"Cause," rejoined Flossie, "I haven't smelt a Friday since I've been here."

It's difficult for a doctor to cure a digested mind.

Your Mail

By DR. SAMUEL C. DIXON
Commissioner of Health of Pennsylvania

Do you read your morning mail at the breakfast table? Have you ever used a knife or fork to open your letters? It is not an uncommon practice, and yet an uncleanly and dangerous one.

The post office is essentially a public utility, and it is universally used by all classes of people. A common point of destination may put my lady's dainty note beside a dirty scrawl from the vilest of slums.

Millions of pieces of mail matter are handled. A certain number of these come from people who are suffering from all kinds of diseases, some of them loathsome and infectious.

Stamps and envelopes, contrary to hygienic rules are for convenience sake, frequently licked. Despite quarantine precautions, mail sometimes comes from houses where cases of communicable diseases exist which have not been reported.

Mail bags are not subjected to regular disinfection, and are not so cleaned as to make them safe from the danger of becoming a factor in the transmission of disease.

During the recent epidemic of infantile paralysis, many of those working on the disease, formed the opinion that it may be carried by a third person. Is it unreasonable to presume that the disease may be carried through the mail?

A sharper is a keen man with a conscience.

Cold Sores and Fever Blisters are only outward manifestations of the inflammation of the mucous surface that lines the lungs, the stomach and all the digestive tract, but they give you evidence of how sore a membrane may become as a result of inflammation, which is stagnation of the blood, rightly called acute catarrh.

If you suffer from such conditions don't let them become chronic, don't run the risk of systemic catarrh.

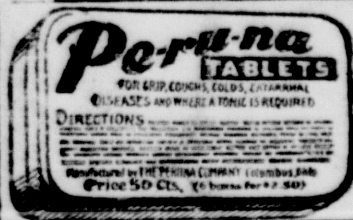

Clear it Up With PERUNA

When your system is cleared of all its poisons, the membranes soothed and healed, the cold gone and your digestion restored, you will enjoy life, feel equal to all its tasks, and be at peace with the world. Let Peruna do for you what it did for this sufferer.

Mrs. L. A. Patterson, 238 Utah Avenue, Memphis, Tenn. says:

"I have been a friend of Peruna for many years. I have used it off and on for catarrhal complaints and found it a very excellent remedy. I have a small family of children. Times are hard with us, but I can scarcely afford to do without Peruna, especially during the season of the year when coughs and colds are prevalent. We always recommend Peruna to our neighbors, for the benefit it has done to us."

You needn't suffer longer with such a necessity at hand.

Peruna can be obtained in tablet form. You can carry it with you and take it systematically and regularly for a remedy, or as needed for a preventive. Get a box today.

For Its Size, Sting of Bee is Most Effective Internal Machine Known

In proportion to its size, the sting of the honeybee is probably the most effective internal machine in existence, says the Popular Science Monthly. The stinging apparatus is smaller than that of a rattlesnake, yet a single sting has been known to kill a man. When we realize that it is almost invisible, and consider what it can do, we cannot fail to be astounded. It seems the very quintessence of devilishness.

The honeybee's sting is complicated—so complicated that many words and much ink have been used in discussing its construction and use. It is generally conceded that the sting consists of three parts, the principal one being a sheath within which move two barbed lancets. Like the barbs of a fishhook, the lancets are not easily extracted from the flesh into which they have been driven. The sheath and the lancets combined form a hollow tube through which the poison flows from the poison sac. Two hairy, soft projections, evidently very sensitive, inform the bee when she is in contact with a stinging object.

Pet Names Given to Shining Lights in American History

"Father of His Country" was the pet name applied to Washington in recognition of his services in establishing the government. "Old Man Eloquent" applied to John Quincy Adams, because of his eloquence in congress in his old age; "Old Hickory" to Andrew Jackson, because of his firmness and fighting qualities; "Old Bullion" to Senator Thomas H. Benton of Missouri, for his persistent advocacy of sound money; "Old Public Functionary" to President James Buchanan who used it in reference to himself in one of his annual messages; "Old Abe," an affectionate title given to Abraham Lincoln in 1899 when he was only fifty years old; "The Pathfinder" to John C. Fremont, because of his explorations and discoveries; "Ancient Mariner of the Wabash" to Richard W. Thompson of Indiana, secretary of the navy under President Hayes; "Old Greenbacks" to Salmon P. Chase, because of his financial record; "Sunset Cox" to Samuel S. Cox, because of a very ambitious description of a sunset which he wrote for an Ohio newspaper; "Little Giant" to Stephen A. Douglas, because of his small stature and great ability; "Little Magician" to Martin Van Buren, because of his shrewdness and success as a politician; "Sage of Monticello" to Thomas Jefferson in retirement after serving two terms as president; "Old Unconditional Surrender" to Gen. U. S. Grant, because of his reply to General Buckner asked what terms of surrender would be allowed: "No terms other than an unconditional and immediate surrender. I propose to move immediately upon your works;" "Tall Sycamore of the Wabash," to Daniel W. Voorhees, because of his unusual height, his reddish hair about the color of a sycamore bark and his home on the Wabash; "Milkboy of the Slashes," to Henry Clay, who was born in Manover county, Virginia, a swampy tract of land once known as the slashes.

A Telephone Watch.

One of the novelties of the season is a small watch attached to the handle of the portable telephone. Business efficiency frowns on the old stereotyped phrase, "Wait a minute." The telephone watch changes all this. It brings the time right under the eye of the phone user. Also as a "desk clock" the telephone watch is a big convenience. No matter how things are shifted on the desk, the correct time is on the telephone. It is the invention of the son of a large watch manufacturer in the West.

Geranium Good Plant For House in Winter; Fuchsia And Primrose Also Reliable

It is very difficult to keep plants in good condition in the house, so much so that many persons do not try it, yet it is a pity to deprive one's self of the pleasure.

For reliable winter blooming nothing surpasses the geraniums. With good plants one may have a wealth of blossoms all winter long. The single varieties will give better satisfaction than the double. Primroses, too, are good, and cyclamens prolong their blooming season delightfully. The fuchsia is an old-fashioned flower that has a peculiar charm. It and the abutilon, sometimes called the flowering maple, will grow to a large size and will be found very satisfactory.

If one does not have a room or porch which can be set apart exclusively for plants, it is still possible to have something green, and even blooming, to brighten the room. For an inside window box have one made the length of the width of the window and set it in a zinc tray for drainage. Fill this with potted plants pouring about the pots clean gravel and sand. The pots may be easily replaced.

Azaleas make a fine showing, and one may have lilies of various kinds, including the culla and Easter lilies. The rex and the rubra begonias have such rich foliage that they make very valuable additions to the winter plants.

A large bay window is a good place for keeping plants. This part of the room may be made especially attractive by training ivy over the windows and by hanging baskets or boxes containing vines and small plants.

WHY HE WORRIED

NEW YEAR RESOLUTIONS

Any day is a good time to make good resolutions, but the advent of a new year is one of the best times, because it is a milepost on the road of life.

Resolutions which cannot reasonably be lived up to are better never made. Failure weakens character, causes loss of confidence and leads the mind to a feeling of "what's the use?"

Real happiness in life cannot be bought with gold. Many of the humblest people are happier and more contented than a neighbor who dwells in a mansion.

One should try to make each day as it seems the brightest day of one's life. Why waste one's life away living in anticipation of a day that may never come? Each day is like a mirror. One side is bright and the reflections seem even better than they really are. The other side is rough and dark. Try to keep the bright side turned your way and at the end of the year may each of us look back with a better feeling at heart and a clearer conscience, that we have performed our duties to the full extent of the opportunities given us.

Do It Now.

The man who waits till New Year's to make off and not keep about the things he's giving up—His summer-off will not keep.

Today a girl is a beautiful bride and tomorrow she's just Mrs. Blank. Men who make good don't sit down and wait for the day to come in.
